Expedia's third-quarter profit fell 18% from a year earlier as higher administrative costs more than offset the effect of more hotel bookings.

Room-night bookings revenue rose 20% from a year earlier as a 27% increase in room nights booked more than offset a 6% decline in revenue per night. Revenue rose 17%, to $1.2 billion. Still, selling and marketing costs jumped 24% from a year earlier, while technology and content expenses rose 31%.
